

WELCOME TO THE EDINBURGH TRINITY SEA CADETS NEWSLETTER – July 2011

Latest News

Edinburgh Trinity received their bi-annual Unit Review from the District Officer in April. We were awarded a Burgee, the highest award possible. The Officer in Charge would like to thank UMC, Staff and Cadets for all of their hard work in achieving this award.

We are now in the Boating Season, activities will take place most weekends (weather permitting!). It is recommended that all cadets attend as many boating weekends as possible to enable them to get the most out of the Corps.

The unit was successful at the District Rowing competition, winning the Open Boys class. We also had a cadet in the winning Open Girls team.

At the Area Competition, the District Girls Open, Boys Junior and Girls Junior teams won the Bronze medal. The Open boys finished 4th. We had Cadets representing every team. Well done to all!

The Unit also attended the Armed Forces Weekend of events. A lot of hard work from the Cadets and Staff made for a great weekend, many thanks to all.

Cadet Training Courses are available during the school holidays, a week course normally costs £60. Every cadet is advised to attend at least 1 course per year, this is a requirement for progression as not everything can be offered at Unit level.

The Unit is holding a Summer Camp at MOD Caledonia 10th – 15th July. 11 Cadets from the Unit are attending. 7 Cadets from Dumfries unit will be joining us.

The Unit Website has now been updated to reflect the new Sea Cadet Branding, an events calendar link has also been added to the News section.

The Juniors Section will shortly be issued with new Jumpers, branded with the Unit logo. There will be no charge towards Parents, however they are to be returned once the Junior progresses to Cadet or decides to leave the unit.

Juniors are encouraged to purchase one of the Unit Polo Shirts to wear on Parade nights with the issued Juniors Uniform.

To raise funds, we are selling TS Trinity Polo shirts, a bargain at £10.00. Any cadet interested please ask a member of staff.
