Safeguarding Children, Young People & Vulnerable Adults Policy

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Marine Society and Sea Cadets (MSSC) is a charity that works with children, young people, volunteers¹, apprentices and seafarers across the youth and maritime sector. Our employees, volunteers and learning providers, provide support to enhance the personal and professional development of these individuals so they can pursue their chosen careers and interests through cadet activities, distance learning opportunities and ships libraries.

2. POLICY AIMS

- 2.1. This policy applies to employees and volunteers who work for or on behalf of MSSC. This policy also applies to our subcontracted learning providers who deliver apprenticeship and adult learning programmes on behalf of the Marine Society.
- 2.2. It reaffirms the responsibilities of Senior Management to ensure that all adults and providers who work for or on behalf of MSSC are fully aware of the need to act in ways which promote and enhance the welfare and safety of children, young people and vulnerable adults.

3. POLICY STATEMENT

- 3.1. 'At Marine Society and Sea Cadets (MSSC) we recognise our responsibilities to ensure that in line with our duty of care we safeguard and protect the children & young people and vulnerable adults with whom we work, doing all we can to promote their safety, health, well-being and happiness. We continually strive to be a respected and trusted organisation where everyone feels safe to participate in all our activities and our cadets and adults understand their right to be-protected from all forms of harm.'

¹ The term 'volunteers' applies to parent helpers, unit assist, parent supporters and any other adult who works with or on behalf of MSSC in a voluntary capacity.

4. ZERO TOLERANCE & WHISTLEBLOWING

- 4.1. Marine Society and Sea Cadets takes safeguarding concerns very seriously and has a zero tolerance approach to any abuse. Our specialist safeguarding team manages all safeguarding cases in line with this policy, the organisation's procedures and statutory responsibilities. The charity has a 24/7 safeguarding incident reporting line. people. All employees and volunteers are required to complete compulsory refresher training.

The charity promotes a culture of safety. Alongside our safeguarding support systems, whistleblowing information on how to report safeguarding concerns for members of the public via our website and details of our safeguarding team and how to contact them are detailed in this document. For those who wish to report a concern via whistleblowing, the matter will be managed in the strictest confidence. MSSC also promote external support organisations including NSPCC & Childline.

5. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

- 5.1. Each UK nation is responsible for its own policies and laws. These cover most aspects of safeguarding and child protection, please refer to Appendix 1 for more details. Although safeguarding systems in each nation may differ in some detail, they are all based on similar principles and the related statutory guidance stipulates what each organisation should do to ensure the wellbeing and safety of children, young people and vulnerable adults.
- 5.2. This policy is in line with the legal requirements and statutory guidance ²of England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales. MSSC supports the principles outlined in relevant legislation and believes that safeguarding children, young people and vulnerable adults is everyone's business in all contexts of the charity's delivery model

² Working Together to Safeguard Children 2018 (England), Keeping children Safe in Education (DFE 2022) National Guidance for Child Protection in Scotland (2022), Co-operating to Safeguard Children and Young People in Northern Ireland 2017, Social Services and Wellbeing (Wales): Working Together to Safeguard People, Welsh Government (2022).  - j. Relevant matters are reported to the Charity Commission in line with their serious Incident reporting requirements.

9. UNDERPINNING VALUES

- 9.1. MSSC aims to provide a safe, responsive and supportive environment for everyone with whom we are in contact. Our stated values of loyalty, respect, self-discipline, commitment, honesty & integrity and courage provide a basis for all of our safeguarding work which ensures that the safety and welfare of everyone in our organisation is our first priority.

10. PROCEDURES AND PRACTICE

101. MSSC has clearly defined procedures for identifying what constitutes safe practice and what action must be taken when there are safeguarding concerns about actual or suspected incidents or abuse.
- 10.2. There are procedures in place for taking action when allegations are made against adults who work with or on behalf of children, young people and vulnerable adults although the underpinning principles remain the same. These are outlined in the following internal documents:

- SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN, YOUNG PEOPLE & VULNERABLE ADULTS PROCEDURE
- SAFER WORKING PRACTICE FOR ADULTS WHO WORK WITH YOUNG PEOPLE GUIDE

10.3. MSSC has an established Safeguarding Team lead by the Head of Safeguarding & Young People Support & Young People Support (Dedicated Safeguarding Lead) and supported by the Safeguarding Manager. Safeguarding Officers, are responsible for ensuring action is taken when safeguarding concerns arise and for ensuring the charity fulfils its statutory duties and develops effective partnerships working with statutory agencies.

10.4. The safeguarding team provide information, advice, guidance, coaching and support to employees, volunteers, cadets, parents/guardians/carers on all issues or enquiries relating to safeguarding and cadet welfare.

10.5. The Safeguarding Team lead on safeguarding policy and practice development.

11. MANAGING RISK

11.1. MSSC operates an effective procedure for assessing and managing risks including those relating to safeguarding children, young people and vulnerable adults. The charity has procedures in place for reporting, recording and reviewing all accidents, and safeguarding incidents which informs practice and risk assessment management protocols.

12. CODE OF CONDUCT

12.1. All adults working in either a paid or voluntary capacity within the MSSC are required to adhere to specific codes of conduct where contact with children, young people and vulnerable adults are concerned.

12.2. Such codes of behavior are intended to safeguard the well-being of children, young people and vulnerable adults but they also provide some protection to employees and volunteers whose own vulnerability, in some situations is recognised. These codes are captured in the MSSC Guidance for Safe Practice document, May 2018.

13. RECORDS AND RECORD KEEPING

13.1. Well-kept records are essential in situations where it is suspected or believed that a child, young person or a vulnerable adult may be at risk of harm.

- 13.2. MSSC has clear processes for the management of records, managing confidentiality and sharing information. There is an expectation of confidentiality in the recording, use and management of personal information. Management and employees are clear about what information can be shared with relevant people within and outside of the organisation. These safeguarding records are held securely and separately from all other records.
- 13.3. All Sea Cadet units ensure that effective systems are in place to maintain the safety, security and confidentiality of all safeguarding incidents that are reported to the safeguarding team.

14. RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION OF EMPLOYEES

- 14.1. The growing awareness of the possibility of abuse by people in positions of trust and the increased understanding of the vulnerability of children, young people and vulnerable adults highlight the need for careful recruitment and selection of employees and volunteers. We take every precaution to ensure sound and thorough vetting procedures for anyone who works with or on behalf of MSSC.
- 14.2. The charity consistently applies a thorough and clearly defined method of recruiting employees, volunteers, sessional, seasonal and contractors in line with best practice. This ensures that all individuals, whatever their role are both competent and safe to work for our organisation.

15. A SUPPORTED WORKFORCE

- 15.1. There are procedures in place for the effective management and supervision of employees and volunteers when working with children and vulnerable adults.
- 15.2. The Safeguarding team have access to regular practice supervision.
- 15.3. All newly appointed employees and volunteers are given an induction into this policy and there are formal and informal opportunities for all adults working in the organisation to develop safeguarding awareness.

16. RELATED DOCUMENTS OR POLICIES

- 16.1. The safeguarding policy is supported by other organisational policies and procedures aimed at promoting safe and ethical work practices.

17. TRAINING AND COMMUNICATION

- 17.1. MSSC provide a variety of safeguarding and refresher safeguarding training face to face and online. This safeguarding training is a requirement for all employees working for the MSSC and is also provided for those subcontractor partners undertaking relevant functions.

18. POLICY REVIEW

18.1. The safeguarding policy and procedures are subject to annual review to ensure that they are fit for purpose. Additional reviews may take place after critical safeguarding concerns and incidents and in line with changes in Charity Commission guidelines and Statutory Guidance.

- Separate guidance for Scotland (Home Office, 2019; Home Office and Scottish Government, 2015). Revised Prevent duty guidance: for Scotland - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)

3. Vulnerable adults

- England: Care Act 2014 defines an adult at risk as any person aged 18 years and over who is or may be in need of community care services by reason of mental health issues, learning or physical disability, sensory impairment, age or illness and who is or may be unable to take care of him/herself or unable to protect him/herself against significant harm or serious exploitation.
- Scotland: Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007.
Section 94 of the 2007 Act defines protected adult. A protected adult is an individual aged 16 or over who is provided with (and thus receives) a type of care, health, support or welfare service e.g. individuals affected by: disability, mental disorder, illness or infirmity and is more at risk of being harmed than other adults who are not so affected.

- Wales: The Social Services and Wellbeing Act (2014) places adult safeguarding on an equal status as child protection. An “adult at risk”, is an adult who is experiencing or is at risk of abuse or neglect, has needs for care and support (whether or not the authority is meeting any of those needs), and as a result of those needs is unable to protect himself or herself against the abuse or neglect or the risk of it.
- Malta: Protection of Vulnerable Older Persons and Adult Persons with Disability 2000 states that “vulnerable adult” means an adult who due to old age or a mental or intellectual or physical disability is unable to take care of [themselves] or unable to protect [themselves] himself against harm or exploitation¹¹
