

Marine Society and Sea Cadets Raffle Terms and Conditions

Raffle rules

- Applications must be from players aged 16 years old or over. No person under this age is allowed by law to enter the Sea Cadets Raffle.
- Any person who has entered the Sea Cadet Raffle who is under 16 years old will automatically forfeit any prize and will be excluded from future entries. If a child under 16 years old is found to have participated in a lottery after the lottery draw has taken place, then a full refund will be made to that person and any prizes that might otherwise have been due to them will not be paid out. If prizes have already been paid out, all reasonable attempts will be made to recover them.
- MSSC reserves the right without notice or reason to cancel or refuse entry to the raffle. MSSC's decision on all matters affecting the draw is final and legally binding. No correspondence regarding the results of the draw will be entered into.
- Complaints will be handled in line with complaints procedure found within Sea Cadet's Policy and Procedure. Complaints that cannot be resolved by MSSC including personal attention from the Promoter will be escalated to a third party; the Fundraising Standards Board.
- The winners have been notified by telephone where a telephone number is available. View our winners list or alternatively the list of winners can also be accessed by calling 020 7654 7000.
- MSSC reserves the right to publish the names of winners.
- The cost of each ticket and entry is £1.
- Monies received after the entry closing date will be treated as a donation.
- There are no alternatives to the cash prizes and no interest is payable. Payment of prizes will be made by cheque by post within 21 days.
- Tickets may not be sold in the street.

Raffle Terms & Conditions

- MSSC accepts no liability for loss, theft or delay due to post or for any interest for late items. MSSC is not liable for any late bank payments. MSSC staff and their families are excluded from playing the Raffle. Woods Response Services employees are excluded from playing the Raffle.
- No detail in the application may be changed in any way once it has been submitted except for change of address.
- MSSC's Raffle is open to residents of England, Wales and Scotland. No entrants are allowed from Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands, or the Isle of Man.
- MSSC Raffle is subject to the laws of England and Wales.
- Unclaimed prizes: if for any reason the winner is not contactable for four weeks after the draw date or unable to collect a prize, a different winner drawn on the same date will be contacted.
- The raffle promoter is Samantha Shaw, Director of Fundraising and Communications, Marine Society and Sea Cadets, 202 Lambeth Road, London SE1 7JW.

- In the event of an error, however caused, whether a printing error or otherwise and whether obvious or otherwise, which affects the raffle in any way, the organisers reserve the right to fairly administer the raffle as though the error had not occurred. Where the organisers deem it appropriate and/or feasible Marine Society and Sea Cadets will notify entrants of the error.
- Failure to comply with any of these rules may result in the disqualification of the entry. Organisers reserve the right to disqualify any entry at their absolute discretion.
- To request more tickets please email yboyle@ms-sc.org or call 020 7654 7000.
- To be removed from future raffle mailings please email fundraising@ms-sc.org.
- In order to promote responsible gambling, a maximum of 60 tickets per person may be ordered before customer interaction. To order tickets beyond this limit, customers must confirm where and how tickets will be sold, and may be required to return ticket stubs and payment for those tickets already in their possession.
- The raffle is open to all England, Scotland and Wales residents.
- Winning entries will be randomly drawn in the presence of two witnesses.
